

System Integration and Consulting Services

Technology acts as an enabler of the e-powered world today, and business plans are invariably interwoven with technology strategy. Effective IT strategy, compounded with proper IT implementation plan, is critical success factors of enterprises nowadays.

With our competent technical team members and worldwide connection to industry technology leaders and university professors, EBSL can reach to domain experts easily and form specialized consulting team quickly. EBSL's professional consulting services incorporate best practice model to support your company's business, to adopt appropriate technology for business improvement, to achieve goals of streamlining operations, to create cost savings and most importantly to enhance corporate values. Our services cover a broad range of IT capabilities in order to satisfy all the needs of each customer, including:

System Integration

EBSL brings our technical expertise, skills, alliances and end-to-end delivery experience to help businesses maximize the benefits of information technology to realize competitive advantage. Leveraging our research and development strength, our system integration services include customization and deployment of a full range of technology and solutions:

- RFID enterprise solutions
- Mobile enterprise solutions
- Messaging solutions
- Business Performance Management solutions
- Data Warehouse implementation

Strategic Consulting

EBSL combines top-notch domain experts with versatile technical specialists to provide strategic consulting services in the following areas:

- Business process re-engineering
- Business performance analysis
- Technology adoption strategy
- Application portfolio analysis
- Change management

Technology Consulting

With the amazing rate of change in today's technology products and services, it is nearly impossible to stay current while managing your business. Our technology consulting services could help you in:

- Software application adoption
- Vendor selection consultation
- Hardware testing and evaluation
- Capacity planning
- Professional training

System Architecture and Design

EBSL has delivered IT projects for customers of all sizes with particular focuses in RFID, Application Service Platform, Mobile Solutions and Data Engineering. EBSL's extensive project experience enable it the ability to provide consulting services in system architecture formulation and system design.

E-Business Solutions Limited

Tel: (852) 2255 0808

Fax: (852) 2255 0800

Email: info@ebsl.hk

Website: www.ebsl.hk